 World Club Member Number: {CCN}

You've experienced the rich legacy and refined British tradition of sailing the high seas on a QUEEN MARY 2® Transatlantic Crossing. Now is the perfect time to rediscover the grandest ocean liner in the world on an unforgettable seven-day Crossing to Cherbourg, France – the gateway to Paris – for the quintessential British experience, plus a taste of classic France.

Imagine the thrill of embarking from New York on this illustrious QUEEN, bound for the dramatic cliffs and wild moorlands of historic Normandy. Whilst in Cherbourg, visit the historic sites of D-Day, or delight in a scenic drive along the coast of Cape La Hague. Explore Bayeaux's museum dedicated to William the Conqueror and see the famed Tapiserie, a tapestry depicting the region's entire history.

Live the legacy of this maritime adventure and experience the New Golden Age of Ocean Travel in 2009. Reserve your QUEEN MARY 2 Transatlantic Crossing to Cherbourg today.
